

Glasgow

“Second city of the British Empire”

We're not exaggerating when we say that we think Glasgow is one of the most exciting cities you'll ever come across. Scotland's largest city is a lively, bustling place, distinctive and full of character, where you are bound to get a very warm welcome indeed. Located on the River Clyde, in southwest Scotland, it is with-in easy access of may favorite attractions, making it an ideal center from which to visit the west of Scotland.

With more green space, for its size, than any other European city and some of the friendliest people on the planet, Glasgow offers world-class attractions and some great shopping experiences. Within a one-hour drive of the city you will find “Burns Country” in Ayrshire, the Loch Lomond National Park and historic Stirling. It is less than an hour by train to Edinburgh.

1. The Burrell Collection

Displays objects from Europe and Asia representing five millennia of art and history. The focus is on late medieval and early Renaissance Europe but the collection also contains important examples of Chinese art.

2. Gallery of Modern Art

A world class art museum and a place for people to gather, to learn and to share ideas. We display, borrow and collect artworks from around the world

3. Glasgow Cathedral

St Mungo's Cathedral is the oldest cathedral on mainland Scotland and is the oldest building in Glasgow. Since the Reformation the cathedral continues in public ownership, within the responsibility of Historic Environment Scotland.

4. Glasgow City Chambers

Completed in 1888, overlooking George Square, is one of the city's most prestigious buildings. Open Monday to Friday 8.30am to 5pm. This grand edifice is a symbol of Glasgow's historic wealth and has, for more than a century, been the headquarters of successive councils serving the City of Glasgow

5. Glasgow Science Centre

One of Scotland's must-see visitor attractions. It has lots of activities to keep visitors of all ages entertained for hours. There are two acres of interactive exhibits, workshops, shows, activities, a planetarium and an IMAX cinema.

6. Kelvingrove Art Gallery & Museum

Opened in 1901 with stunning architecture and a family friendly atmosphere. Explore 22 galleries and discover everything from art to animals and Charles Rennie Mackintosh. A must see venue!

7. Peoples Palace

The city's social history, since 1750 can be explored through a wealth of historic artifacts, paintings, prints and photographs, film and interactive computer displays. The exhibits give a wonderful insight into how Glaswegians lived, worked and played

8. Provand's Lordship

Built in 1471, is one of only four surviving medieval buildings in Glasgow. The "auld hoose" is furnished with a fine selection of 17th century historic furniture and royal portraits. Step back into medieval Glasgow with a visit to this fascinating building.

9. Riverside Museum

Glasgow's award-winning transport museum. With over 3,000 objects on display there's everything from skateboards to locomotives, paintings to prams and cars to a Stormtrooper.

10. University of Glasgow—Hunterian Museum

Founded in 1807, The Hunterian is one of the leading university museums in the UK and is one of Scotland's most important cultural assets. The collections include scientific instruments used by James Watt, Joseph Lister and Lord Kelvin.
